VIRTUAL VOLUNTEERING OPPORTUNITY ABROAD-2020

Help us break the cycle of generational poverty

WE ARE LOOKING FOR

Young, talented and passionate individuals to teach English virtually in India, Pakistan and Tajikistan.

This is an incredible opportunity where you will teach children and young adults' miles away at the comfort of your home. The students in their respective countries will not only learn English from you but they will also have a chance to see a different perspective of teaching and learning through you.

COMMITMENT REQUIRED

WEF would like you to make at least a three-months commitment to the students once a week. For those who are willing to commit a year will also have a chance to meet the students through a One-month internship opportunity

Don't miss the chance and be a part of an amazing journey towards a better and prosperous world and sign up to our volunteer form at: www.wef.world.

Your contributions will go long ways to break the cycle of generational poverty.

*After 01 year of service, volunteers will be provided with an economy class return ticket, stay with a host family and including meal. The visa will be the volunteers' responsibility although WEF will facilitate the process and provide all the necessary documents.

If you are interested send your CV at: worldeducationfund@gmail.com

Profile of a Volunteer

1. Live Session Volunteers:

A live session volunteer must be able to grade:

- A high school or college student who can devote Saturday nights from 11-2 A.M or from 12-3 A.M teaching virtual classes to students.
- A fluent English speaker and must have a good grasp of English grammar, writing, and reading.
- Aware of and have a sense of understanding about the cultural differences.
- Willing to be creative with the lesson plans and bring new ideas to the classroom that are adjacent to the curriculum.
- Up-to-date and read over weekly journal entries from all students in the class (25).

2. Grading Volunteer:

On average this type of volunteer must give 1 to 3 hours a week grading students' assignments.

- Live session grading: weekly assignments like worksheets, Article ID's, in-class writing, tests. Also, required to give feedback to the teachers and be good communicators with them, as well.
- SGL grading: weekly assignments, SGA's (self-guided activities include reading comprehension, speaking, and writing).
- 48-hour helpline: responding to emails throughout the week from students who may have questions about the coursework.
